ACTIVITIES AT A GLANCE

Establishment

We, the Rajasthani people of Tamilnadu conscious of the need for adequate civic and leadership training of the people, have established RAJASTHANI ASSOCIATION TAMILNADU to enable us to exercise decisive influence for the just solution of the problem of its members and of general public and with a view to promote cordiality, understanding and goodwill among all sections of the people and to uphold justice, social, political and economic condition in the day to day life of the people. The Rajasthani Community in Tamilnadu is totally identified with the people of Tamilnadu and thereby contributing their mite in the field of Education, Medical Relief and for the upliftment of poor and the needy people.

Some of the social activities of the Association are Scholarship distribution to the college students, Felicitation to the Meritorious Students, Distribution of relief to the victims affected by National Calamities, Awards given to Rajasthani Community every year, conducting Mega Health Camps like Eye Camps and ENT, Installation of Water Booth at public places etc.

INAUGURATION

The Association was inaugurated by Late Shri. C.N. ANNADURAI, the then Chief Minister of Tamilnadu on 03-11-1967. The Founder President was Shri G.P. Shah and Founder Secretary was Shri Heerachand Shiyal. During its existence for more than 48 years, the Association is not only representing the Rajasthani's voice to the Government of Tamil Nadu in all the fields of activities, such as business, trade, commerce, cultural and social but also doing its best in Health, Educational and Social Service activities.
